Established in March 1981, the Middle Atlantic-Great Lakes Organized Crime Law Enforcement Network® (MAGLOCLLEN) is one of six Regional Information Sharing Systems® (RISS) centers funded by the United States Congress under a grant administered by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Bureau of Justice Assistance. The MAGLOCLLEN mission is to support law enforcement and criminal justice efforts in identifying and removing criminal conspiracies and activities spanning jurisdictional boundaries and to promote officer safety. From patrol to investigations to prosecutions, MAGLOCLLEN delivers the tools and resources needed to support its membership in their efforts to combat criminal activity and promote officer safety within their communities.

MAGLOCLLEN services include Investigative Equipment Loans, Analytical Services, Intelligence Research, Audio/Video Enhancements, the MAGLOCLLEN E-Bulletin and more. In addition, RISS operates the RISS Secure Cloud, known as RISSNET™, that provides access to RISS Criminal Intelligence databases, the RISS Investigative Leads Bulletin Board (RISSLeads), the RISS Officer Safety Event Deconfliction application (RISSafe), numerous partner system Intelligence and information sharing databases, and more. MAGLOCLLEN serves Delaware, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia, as well as Canada and England. There are more than 1,550 state, local, and federal law enforcement agencies which are active members of MAGLOCLLEN. For more information, call MAGLOCLLEN at (800) 345-1322.
